

Dr. Cortney Baker

LEADING WITH PURPOSE

EXECUTIVE BIO

Dr. Cortney Baker is an award-winning entrepreneur, host of the talk show Conquering the Glass Ceiling with Dr. Cortney, podcast host, researcher, author, trainer, TEDx speaker, and a nationally recognized authority on women's leadership. She has been featured on FOX News, iHeart Radio, and Huffington Post, among other publications. As a leadership expert and mother of three, she is passionate about inspiring and empowering women to lead with greatness.

Dr. Cortney is the author of the best-selling book The Ten Do's and Don'ts for Business Leadership: Lessons to Lead Effectively and her most recent book, Unlimited: Conquering the Myth of the Glass Ceiling. Dr. Cortney was named the 2016/2017 Texas Business Woman of the Year, and is the founder and CEO of KidsCare Home Health, a multi-million-dollar healthcare organization in Texas and Colorado. She holds an Ed.D. in Organizational Leadership from Pepperdine University, where she concentrated on understanding and advancing women at the highest levels of leadership.

For more information or to reserve Dr. Baker to speak at an upcoming event, visit cortneybaker.com or contact 1-800-994-6906.

CORTNEY@CORTNEYBAKER.COM